

Animal Habitats

We (humans) are able to change our environments to make them habitable with technology and buildings. We are able to live in most conditions. Some animals cannot do this and have become extinct as a result.

extinct: there are no more of that species/animal left in the world.

Climate Change

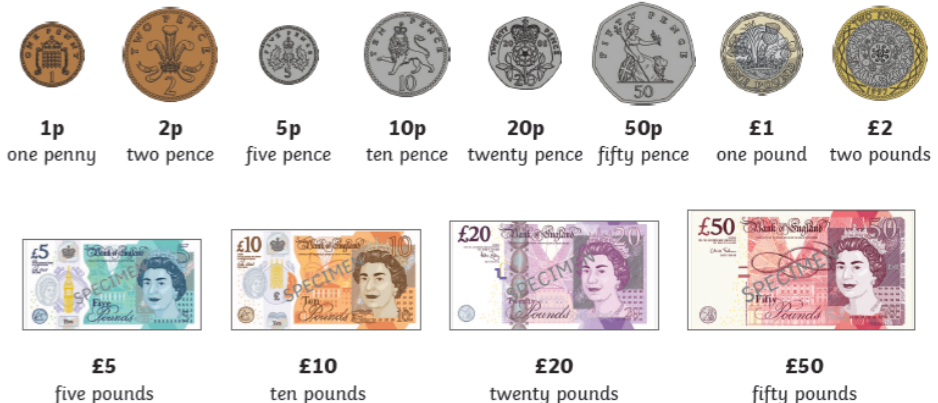

Global Warming

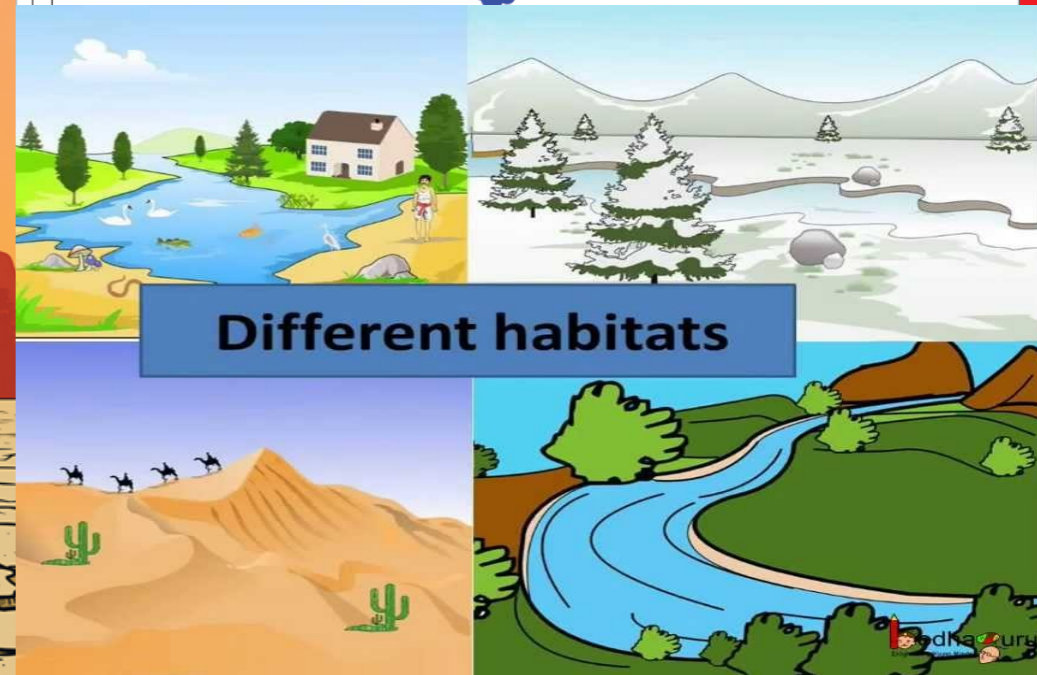

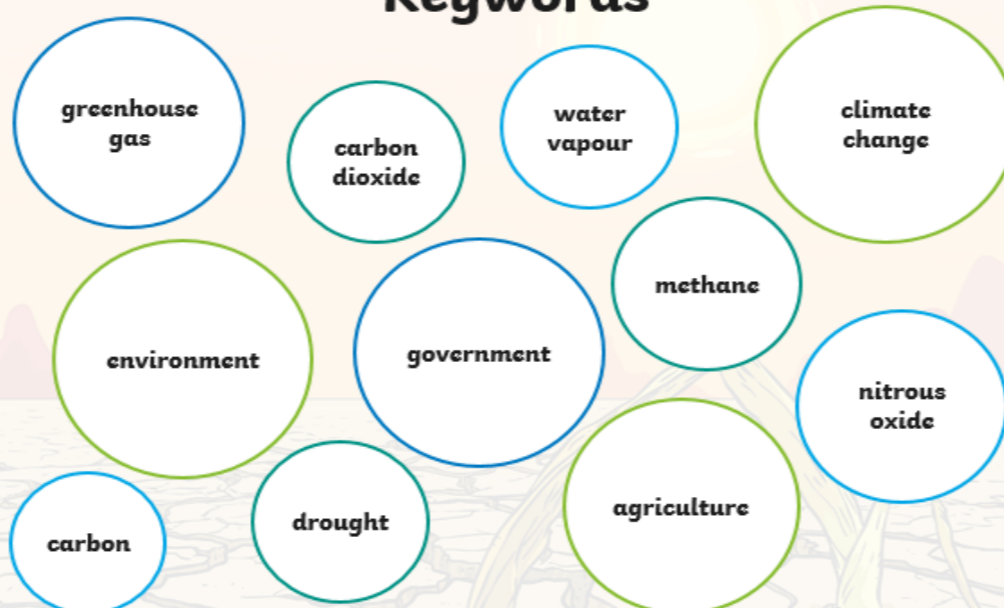

Flooding

British Coins and Notes

Keywords

Different habitats

